ME IORIAI. ENDORSED BY GRAND

LODGE OF MARYLAND. On last Tuesday Wm. B. McChesney, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia, accompanied by Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, and Messrs. Henry K. Field and C. H. Callahan, of this city, by previous invitation of the Grand Master of Maryland, paid a visit to Baltimore to attend the annual communication of the Grand Lodge of that state, and witnessed the twentysixth election of General Thomas J. Shryock as Grand Master. It is said there is only one instance in the history of the Masonic freternity of the world where this record for length of service has been exceeded, and that by one of the kings of England, and is an eloquent former chief, burdened with 'years and tribute and beautiful testimonial of suffering from chronic ailments was the affection of the Masons of Maryland for their Grand Master. General Shryock's ancestors were Alexandrians; his mother being one of the girls who sang to Lafayetto when he visited here in 1825, and his grandfather a member of the Masonic fraternity way back in the early part of the last century. This probably accounts, in a measure, for his particularly warm affection for old Virgina, in general, and Alexandria, in particular. Immediately after the opening of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master announced to that body that on the 22nd of last February, at a meeting of representatives of Grand Lodges in Alexandria, Wirginia, he per- the latter part of the eighteenth century. sonally endorsed the movement to erect a memorial to Washington, The Mason, and pledged the Grand Lodge of Maryland to co-operate in this worthy object, and that he relied upon his Grand Lodge to approve the action of their Grand Master. Judge Duke was then introduced and, in a well timed efequent appeal, laid the proposition before the Grand Lodge after which the worshipful master of Washiugton Lodge was presented and briefly explained the several features of when the present police force was the undertaking. Mr. Callahan was organized. He was at that time followed by Rev. Mr. Branch, of Baltimore, who feelingly referred to the long friendship and cordial relations of the two state and stated that, "as Maryland was the first state in the Washington, the soldier, statesman and

James F. Webster was a son of John and Sallie Webster. His father was a tanner by occupation and for many years was employed at the Smoot taunery on Wilkes street. His mother was a daughter of William Latham, who came to this city from Ireland in The subject of this notice was born on West street. In early life be was a carpenter's apprentice and upon reaching manhood worked for a time at that occupation. He later placed teams on the street and for years engaged in the business of a carrier.

At the close of the civil war, when four constables performed the police duty of the city during the day, he was elected one of the quaternion, which position he held until 1870, selected as captain and served as such until a few years ago when his advanced years caused the police commissioners to place a younger man at the head of the force. The former union to raise a monument to General chief, however, was retained in the service as property clerk, and among his duties was the preparation of the various papers in connection with the Police Court, work for which he was peculiarly suited, and which he executed with accuracy and satisfactorily as he had done for nearly forty years while chief.
